The most populous nation in European Union is one of the most important economic driving forces in the world. Its diversity also impresses, proven by the ever-increasing number of tourists each year.

Once a vital inland port and centre of trade, Frankfurt is now continental Europe's largest financial centre. Frankfurt is known as a city of skyscrapers, but if you take the time to have a closer look you'll find a thriving metropolis full of charm. The architecture is exquisite, with many historic buildings having been recently restored.
